First trial for the murder of Stanford White, on June 25, 1906, was held at the Criminal branch of the Supreme court of the state of New York before Justice Fitzgerald and ended April 12, 1907, with a verdict of murder in the first degree. Second trial opened January 6, 1908 in the Criminal branch of the Supreme court of the state of New York before Justice Victor J. Dowling and ended January 29, 1908, with a verdict of not guilty, but insane. On August 17, 1913, Thaw escaped from Matteawan state hospital. The case again entered the courts and he was given his liberty in June 1915.
